The features available via Nordea Business are described at nordea.dk/nordea-business.

The customer has online access to Nordea Business around the clock every day of the year.

In Nordea Business special deadlines referred to as cut-off times apply to receipt of the customer's instructions in terms of executing them on a business day, see condition 2.3. Special deadlines also apply in Nordea Business to cancellation of the customer's instructions, see condition 2.4.

2 Conditions for the use of Nordea Business and payment services

2.1 Use MitID or Nordea ID for online access

The customer needs to have MitID or Nordea ID to use Nordea Business and payment services as well as financial services. The customer agrees with the bank whether they should have access to Nordea Business using their personal MitID or Nordea ID.

MitID or Nordea ID consists of a user ID that the customer uses together with their authenticators that may from time to time be linked to MitID and/or Nordea ID.

Authenticators must be approved by the bank. The authenticators can for example be a password, a PIN, an app, a code display, an audio code reader or a chip that the customer needs to verify their identity and log in to Nordea Business and/or confirm a payment instruction in Nordea Business.

The preferred MitID and Nordea ID authenticator is an app that the customer can download and use on their smartphone and/or tablet.

The conditions for using MitID and Nordea ID, including the conditions for keeping user ID, passwords, PINs and authenticators safe, appear from:

the Terms and conditions for MitID, which are available at www.mitid.dk, and the Nordea ID rules, which are available at www.nordea.dk/nordeaid.

2.1.1 Creating and using personal codes for MitID and Nordea ID

To be able to use MitID and Nordea ID for identification and authentication, the customer must enter their user ID together with a personal code of their choice (password or PIN) or together with codes from their authenticators.

2.1.2 Storage and protection of passwords, PINs and authenticators for MitID and Nordea ID

The customer must memorise their password for MitID or Nordea ID and must not disclose their personal code to others.

The conditions for storage and protection of the customer's passwords, PINs and authenticators for MitID and Nordea ID appear from:

- the Terms and conditions for MitID, condition D.4, which are available at www.mitid.dk, and
- the Nordea ID rules, condition 2.2, which are available at www.nordea.dk/nordeaid.

If the customer suspects that their password or PIN has become known to any other person and/or unauthorised persons have access to their authenticators, the customer must immediately block their access to Nordea Business, MitID and/or Nordea ID. See conditions 9.2 and 9.3 below.

2.2 Submitting payment instructions in Nordea Business

When the customer is to submit an instruction for a transfer or a bill payment in Nordea Business, the screens tell the customer which information to enter so that the bank can execute the instruction correctly. The information includes the beneficiary's sort code and account number or a creditor reference.

2.2.1 Confirmation of payment instructions in Nordea Business via a browser

The customer must confirm their instruction for a transfer or a bill payment by clicking OK on the screen in Nordea Business. In addition, the customer will be asked to confirm the instruction using their MitID or Nordea ID authenticators.

Special execution times apply to outgoing international transfers from Denmark. Read more in the Tariff of charges for corporate customers at www.nordea.dk/erhverv/priser and the Terms and conditions for payment accounts for corporate customers.

2.6 Maximum amounts for Nordea Business

For security reasons the bank can unilaterally set maximum amounts for individual payment services in Nordea Business.

An express credit transfer cannot exceed DKK 500,000 per payment instruction.

3 Fee charged for the use of Nordea Business

An annual fee is charged for online access via Nordea Business. The fee is charged quarterly in arrears.

The customer pays a fee for paying bills and for transferring amounts to accounts with other banks. The fee will automatically be debited to the customer's account at least once a month. The current fees and charges are available at nordea.dk/erhverv/priser.

The bank may change its fees and charges for services and its calculation method in accordance with its General terms and conditions for corporate customers.

4 Technical requirements, checking etc.

4.1 Technical requirements

The customer can test their device and internet connection at nordea.dk/nordea-business/tekniskekrav. The bank recommends that the customer always keeps their antivirus program and operating system updated. Read more about safe use at nordea.dk.

4.2 Encryption

All personal data sent via the internet between the bank and the customer's device will be encrypted. This means that the data will not be disclosed to others.

4.3 Checking incoming and outgoing payments

The customer must check transfers and bill payments to and from their accounts. The checks can be made via Nordea Business, Nordea Business Mobile, Konto-kik, bank statements or by calling the bank on +45 70 33 44 44 around the clock.

If the customer finds entries that the customer does not recognise, the customer must contact the bank as soon as possible. In this connection the customer must note the deadlines stated in condition 5.

4.4 A new copy of these conditions

If the customer loses these conditions or for other reasons needs a new copy, the conditions are always available at nordea.dk/nordea-business.

5 Disputing unauthorised or erroneous transfers and bill payments not confirmed by the customer

5.1 As soon as the customer becomes aware of it, the customer must dispute unauthorised or erroneous transfers and bill payments which the customer has not confirmed.

When assessing whether the customer has contacted the bank in due time, their obligation to check the entries to their account will be taken into consideration, see condition 4.3.

Under all circumstances the customer must contact the bank no later than two months after the relevant amount was debited to the customer's account.

The bank will then investigate the dispute. The relevant amount will normally be credited to the customer's account while the dispute is being investigated. If the dispute turns out to be unjustified, the amount will be debited to the customer's account once more. If the investigation shows that an unauthorised party has used Nordea Business, the bank may hold the customer liable, see condition 5.2.

If the customer's dispute turns out to be unjustified, the bank may charge interest from the date when the amount was credited to the customer's account to the date when it is debited again.

5.2 The customer's liability in case of misuse of Nordea Business

The customer is liable for all transactions made with the customer's authenticators for MitID or Nordea ID.

This also applies if the customer's authenticators for MitID or Nordea ID have been misused. Transactions are made on the basis of the payment instructions received by the bank and identified by means of the customer's user ID and authenticators for MitID or Nordea ID. The customer is responsible for ensuring that the instruction is given correctly. The bank is not liable for any loss caused by errors and defects in instructions received or by modification of the contents of an instruction during the process.

5.3 The bank's liability

The bank is liable for any delay, error and defect if it is established that the delay, error or defect is due to negligence or carelessness on the part of the bank.

The liability comprises direct losses only. Indirect losses such as consequential loss, loss due to business interruption or loss of income are not compensated.

The bank is not liable for:

- any loss arising as a consequence of program errors and operational disruptions preventing or interrupting the use of Nordea Business
- any interruption of the customer's access to obtaining information or executing transactions, whether or not such interruption is due to errors or defects in the transmission or in the bank's system
- any damage to the customer's equipment, such as computer, programs and router
- any form of misuse, whether or not attributable to any person in possession of the customer's user ID and/or authenticators for MitID or Nordea ID.

On suspicion of misuse, actual misuse or security threats, the bank will inform the customer by telephone, text message and/or e-mail if the customer has stated a telephone number or an e-mail address. Alternatively, the customer will be informed via Nordea Business/Nordea Business Mobile/Konto-kik.

6 Changes to these conditions

Changes to these conditions to the customer's detriment may be made by giving 14 days' notice. Changes in the customer's favour may take effect without notice. If these conditions are changed, the bank will inform the customer on the bank's website (nordea.dk/nordea-business), inform the customer via Nordea Business, Nordea Business Mobile, Konto-kik or send the customer a letter.

A change of which notice has been given will be deemed to have been accepted by the customer unless the customer has informed the bank before the new conditions take effect that the customer does not want to be bound by the new conditions.

If the customer informs the bank that they do not want to be bound by the new conditions, the agreement will be deemed to be terminated at the time when the new conditions take effect.

6.1 Term of the agreement

The agreement on the use of Nordea Business remains in force until it is terminated, see condition 6.2. The customer pays a fee for using Nordea Business throughout the period, see condition 3 for more details.

6.2 Termination

The customer may terminate the agreement at any time without giving notice.

The bank may terminate the agreement by giving 14 days' notice.

In the event of default the bank is entitled to terminate the agreement immediately.

7 Beneficiaries

The customer may save the beneficiaries that are used frequently. In this way the customer only has to enter the information once.

The customer can create, change or delete beneficiaries.

The beneficiaries are kept in the customer's personal overview which no other person has access to.

However, the customer should note that the bank has access to the information in the following way:

Information about the customer's beneficiaries will be saved at the bank. At the bank only the system administrator will be able to gain access to the information and any messages to beneficiaries. The access will only be used to correct any errors and for maintaining Nordea Business.

The information will not be disclosed to any other persons.

8 Creditworthiness

The customer's access to Nordea Business requires that the customer's finances are in order.

9 Suspension or blocking of the customer's authenticators (MitID and Nordea ID)

9.1 Automatic blocking

If the customer enters their MitID password incorrectly three times, MitID will be suspended for an hour. If the password is entered incorrectly three times after the suspension is lifted, the customer's MitID will be blocked.

If the customer enters their Nordea ID password incorrectly six times, the customer's Nordea ID will be blocked.

The customer can regain access to MitID and Nordea ID by calling the bank on +45 70 33 44 44 around the clock.

The customer must block their online access as soon as possible if they detect or suspect:

- that any other person knows the password or PIN for the customer's MitID or Nordea ID
- that any other person knows the codes for the customer's authenticators (for example an app, code reader or audio code reader)
- that any other person has gained unauthorised access to the customer's authenticators or
- that any other person has made unauthorised use of the customer's online access to Nordea Business.

The customer can block their online access in two ways:

- by calling the bank on +45 70 33 44 44 around the clock
- by calling Spærreservice (blocking service) on +45 33 33 22 49 around the clock.

The customer will receive a confirmation containing details of the time when their access was blocked.

The customer can also block their online access by blocking the authenticator for MitID and/or Nordea ID that the customer uses for Nordea Business.

9.3 The customer's obligation to block MitID and Nordea ID

The customer's obligation to block their MitID or Nordea ID appears from:

- the Terms and conditions for MitID, condition D.7, which are available at www.mitid.dk, and
- the Nordea ID rules, condition 2.5, which are available at www.nordea.dk/nordeaid.

9.4 Operational disruptions

When the customer logs in to Nordea Business, they will, to the extent possible, be notified of errors and operational disruptions.

10 Processing of personal data

The bank processes personal data about the customer to be able to provide the agreed products and services. The bank's processing of personal data and the customer's rights are described in the bank's Privacy Policy, which is available at nordea.dk or by contacting the bank.

11 Governing law and venue

Any disputes about these conditions must be settled according to Danish law and by Danish courts.
